

John has been a barbershopper since 1971 (50+ years), and is a retired Performance Judge for (29 years). Since moving to Denver, CO in 1980, John has been a member of five different choruses, director in four, and earned Barbershopper of the Year from four. John has served as the Rocky Mountain District Vice President of Contest and Judging for 26 years, and has coached quartets and choruses, and taught classes at Harmony Schools across the Rocky Mountain District. In 1992, many of these activities earned him the Rocky Mountain District Barbershopper of the Year. In 2019 John received an unexpected honor; he was inducted into the Rocky Mountain District Hall of Fame.

John is currently director of the Denver Mountainaires "Colorado Chord Company" chorus, and also sings in the Denver "Sound of the Rockies" chorus. He also is the Praise Team director at Our Savior's Church.

John enjoys Broadway musicals and has season tickets to the Denver Center for the Performing Arts. He enjoys traveling to tropical locations for vacations, and recently retired from Ophir Corporation, a small aerospace company.

I've been a barbershopper since 1971 (50+ years). Since moving to Denver, CO in 1980, I've been a member of five different choruses, director in four, and earned Barbershopper of the Year from four. I'm a retired Performance Judge (29 years), served the RMD as Vice President of Contest and Judging (26 years), and coached quartets and choruses, and taught classes at RMD Harmony Schools. In 1992 these activities earned me the RMD Barbershopper of the Year. In 2019 I received an unexpected honor; I was inducted into the RMD Hall of Fame. I currently direct the Denver Mountainaires "Colorado Chord Company" chorus, sing in the Denver Mile High "Sound of the Rockies" chorus, and direct the Praise Team at Our Savior's Church. My wife (Maureen) and I enjoy traveling to tropical locations for vacations. I'm a retired US Naval Officer and retired aerospace lead software engineer.
